Lift off Corns!

Doesn't hurt a bit and Freezone costs only a few cents.With your fingers! You can lift off any hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the hard skin calluses from bottom of feet.A tiny bottle of "Freezone" costs little at any drug store; apply a few drops upon the corn or callus. Instantly it stops hurting, then shortly you lift that bothersome corn or callus right off, root and all, without one bit of pain or soreness. Truly!
No humbug!

HONEY CROP OF 14,400 POUNDS SHIPPED NORTH.Virgil Weaver & Son, honey producers of Falmouth, shipped by express 14,400 pounds of honey to one firm in Ohio. They also sold to a local dealer 6,000 pounds. Their total crop of honey will amount to 25,000 pounds. Weaver & Son have 700 colonies of bees.There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other disease put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable.
Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F.
J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.F. J. CHENEY & CO.,

PLATFORM ADOPTED BY DEMO- CRATS AT LOUISVILLE CON- VENTION.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 3. — General revision of the State revenue law in a way that will insure gradual reduction of taxes on real estate, resulting, ultimately, in relieving it from State taxes, except for school and road purposes, is promised in the platform adopted here Thursday night by Kentucky Democrats in State convention.The platform declares also for a production tax on oil and gas, cautious legislation against profiteering, ratification of the Federal amendment for woman suffrage, continuation of the primary system of making nominations and creation of the office of State Labor Commissioner to be filled by election.The convention went on record as indorsing unqualifiedly the Wilson administration. In the platform preamble attention is called to the fact that every Democratic platform pledge of 1915 has been fulfilled, and the Democratic party is congratulated on the fact. It is set forth that there is not a piece of State legislation enacted during the last eight years that Republicans, if they should happen to be in control of the Legislature this fall, would dare repeal.In the platform are a strong agriculture plank, a strong educational plank, that is calculated to advance the cause of literacy in Kentucky and elevate school teachers to the plane on which they belong, and a strong public health plank.Practically the only fight waged in the drafting and adoption of the platform had to do with woman suffrage, the issue being whether the convention should declare for ratification of the Federal amendment, or call on the coming Legislature to submit the matter of suffrage to the people.This question of state rights in the matter of suffrage was the basis of the only fight that caused even a ripple on the otherwise placid surface.Indorsement of the Federal amendment plan was a distinct disappointment to Senator J. C. W. Beckham, who had hoped that the convention would support State submission instead. He took the position that each State should settle the matter of suffrage within its own borders, and that the Federal Government should keep hands off.In the opinion of Democrats in attendance on the convention, it was one of the most representative gatherings of its kind ever held in Kentucky. Approximately 2,500 delegates were present.Representative Alben W. Barkley, Paducah, who, as temporary chairman, made the keynote speech, reviewed the present administration, national and State, and turned the searchlight on Republican administrations. He pointed out that all the platform pledges made by the Democrats in 1915 had been redeemed, and reviewed legislation enacted. He said that for the first time in years the Commonwealth of Kentucky had been placed on a firm financial basis, and recited figures showing that more money had been expended on schools and good roads than ever before during a like period. His address thrilled his hearers to a high pitch of enthusiasm, and the speaker was cheered repeatedly.Promptly at noon Thursday the convention was called to order in the Armory by Judge Charles A. Hardin, Harrodsburg, chairman of the Democratic State Central and Executive Committees. He made a brief address in which he declared that there had been more constructive, just and helpful legislation under President Wilson than during a period of fifty years under the Republicans. The Democratic party in this State, he said, is united and he predicted that the Democratic ticket will win in November by at least 30,000 votes.When Judge Hardin called for nominations for temporary chairman of the convention, only one name, that of Representative Barkley, was submitted. The nominating speech was made by State Senator Charles H. Harris, Versailles, and W. A.
Berry, Paducah, seconded it. Representative Barkley was escorted to the stage by a committee composed of Senator Harris, Mr. Berry and Representative David H. Kincheloe, Madisonville.Following the address of Mr. Barkley, and announcement of the personnel of the various convention committees, Delegate Berry offered a resolution, which was adopted, heartily indorsing the course pursued by President Wilson in behalf of the League of Nations, and his determination to tour the country in order that the people may know first hand, just what he is attempting to bring about in that connection.Judge John D. Carroll, New Castle, Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, as permanent chairman, presided over the night session. It was at this session that the platform was submitted by the Resolutions Committee and the real business of the convention accomplished.One of the features of the night session was an address by Senator Beckham in which he pointed out that there was nothing in the record of the Republican party, State or national, that would warrant the people again placing them in power in Kentucky or elsewhere."IT MUST HAVE BEEN DEAD AT LEAST 6 MONTHS BUT DIDN'T SMELL.""Saw a big rat in our cellar last fall," writes Mrs. Joanny, "and bought a 25c cake of RAT-SNAP, broke it up into small pieces. Last week while moving we came across the dead rat. Must have been dead six months, didn't smell. RAT-SNAP is wonderful." Three sizes—25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by the

ESTABLISHMENT OF RETAIL STORES FOR SALE OF SUPPLIES.

The primary object of these stores is to place before the public, at the least rate possible, the surplus supplies of the Army. In order to reach the greatest number of people, the United States has been divided into several districts, according to the population. For the sake of convenience these districts will be termed Retail Districts. At least one store will be established in each Retail District, under the immediate supervision of the Zone Surplus Property Officer, in whose military zone the store is located.These stores will be prepared to conduct a retail, cash, counter business, and organize a mail department, operated as part of and by the store, and not by the Postal Department. The Postal Department will be requested to establish in store a branch Parcel Post Office, for convenience in making shipments.An initial allotment of stock will be made to each from Washington.
This allotment is made for the benefit of the entire retail district, and not solely for the individual city in which the store is located.In many instances the initial stock will include the entire available quantity of the surplus of certain articles, which when exhausted will be no longer available. Under no circumstances will orders be received for quantities in excess of allotment, or actual stock on hand, with the prospect of future replenishment.
Orders received by mail for supplies not on hand, or for which stock is exhausted, will be immediately returned to the sender, with the advice that same is exhausted.As the idea and subject of this sale is to reach the individual, no orders for large quantities of any article will be received, except for Boy Scouts and in special cases, municipal activities. No sales will be made to hotels, and similar institutions. At present no groceries will be included in these articles.The exact location of the various stores that will be established in this district, and detail plans as to the method and manner of distribution, have not been worked out, nor has a list of the articles to be sold, been received. These facts will be published in all papers as soon as determined upon.These stores will not be open before September 25th.For the information of the public, the sales now being conducted by the municipalities and Postal Departments are in no way connected with these stores to be opened in the very near future.The public is invited to watch the papers for such information as will be published from time to time.The Jeffersonville District includes all of Kentucky and that part of Indiana south of a line drawn through Indianapolis, running east and west.
Indianapolis is in the Jeffersonville District.

THE TEST OF MERIT

Paris People Are Given Convincing Proof.No better test of any article can be made than the test of time and this is particularly true of a kidney medicine. Doan's Kidney Pills have stood this test and stood it well. What better proof of the merits of this remedy could you demand, than the statement of a Paris resident who used it successfully and tells of lasting results.Geo. McCandles, Second street, says: "My kidneys were inactive and I had headaches. Doan's Kidney Pills put a stop to all the troubles and they gave me complete relief." (Statement given January 17, 1912.)No Trouble Since.
Over twenty-four years later or on November 9, 1916, Mr. McCandles said: "I haven't had any need of a kidney remedy since I last endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. I consider myself permanently cured."Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get

YOUNG MILLIONAIRE TO BECOME "CUB REPORTER."

Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., son of Brigadier General Cornelius Vanderbilt, has forsaken Newport and its gay social life to accept a job as "cub" reporter on the New York Herald at $25 a week.The young millionaire obtained the position on his own initiative by a letter he wrote to the city editor of the paper."I wanted to be a reporter," he said, "because I have always found newspaper men to be the brightest and most alert people I know. When in France with the Twenty-seventh Division, I always noticed that the duty calling for resources and initiative was nearly always given to a former newspaper man."

"MRS. KEACH TELLS HOW SHE GOT TO KNOW RAT-SNAP."

"Have always feared rats. Lately noticed many on my farm. A neighbor said he just got rid of droves with RAT-SNAP. This started me to thinking. Tried RAT-SNAP myself.
It killed 17 and scared the rest away." RAT-SNAP comes in three sizes, 25c, 50c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by The Farmer's Supply Co.
